Dear Colleague

You are invited to attend the second Values Based Interprofessional Education and Practice Workshop 10th October 2018.

Hosts: The Values-Based Interprofessional Education and Practice Network, The Collaborating Centre for Values-Based Practice

Venue: St Catherine's College, Oxford.

Timing: 9.45 am-4 pm.

Participants: Network members and other interested individuals

Workshop Format.

The day, which will consist of short presentations and interactive group work, is planned as a follow up to the first Values-Based Interprofessional Education and Practice workshop held at Oxford on 27/7/17.

There will be opportunities to be updated and to promote Network member developments and activities. In addition there will then be an opportunity to explore further the link between Interprofessional Education (IPE) and Practice, and to discuss future developments of the Network.

Aims for the day:

To promote activities that can bring together VBP and IPE and Practice

To look at processes for making the link between VBP and IPE and Practice.

To extend and consolidate communities of practice.

To clarify the future development of the Network.

Learning outcomes.

On completion of the workshop, participants will have:

Increased knowledge of and greater awareness of the link between Values Based Practice (VBP) and IPE and Practice.

Greater knowledge of the practical application of VBP and IPE and Practice through research, the use of digital stories and the use of simulation.

Applied knowledge/skills learnt to their future practice

Strengthened the links within the Network.

The facilitators for the day will be:

Laura Chalmers - Academic Lead for Interprofessional Education, Robert Gordon University, Aberdeen.

Dr Richard Gray—Honorary Fellow of CAIPE.

Prof Ashok Handa – Director Surgical Education and Surgeon

Clair Merriman - Head of Professional Practice Skills, Oxford Brookes University

Dr Liz Westcott – Research Fellow, Oxford Brookes University

Additional Information

As traffic in Oxford can be heavy and car parking at St Catherines is limited you are advised to use public transport to travel to the venue. A reliable and frequent park and ride service from both East and West is also available. The further details see:
