

CAIPE CORPORATE FORUM

Challenges and Opportunities in IPE: a West Midlands perspective

26th October 2018
Birmingham City University
City South Campus
Faculty of Health Education and Life Sciences
Room SCT 240

Programme

09.30 Arrival and Coffee

10.00 Welcome

Gerri Nevin, Associate Professor, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Birmingham City University.

Sharon Buckley, Senior Lecturer in Medical Education, University of Birmingham

10.15 Keynote presentation: Building IPE in a hospital Trust

Mr Atiq Rehman Consultant Vascular Surgeon, Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust.

As Head of Clinical Teaching Academy, Atiq has established an extensive programme of IPE within the Trust, including IP plenary days, workshops, simulations and short clinical attachments. In this presentation, Atiq will discuss the challenges he has faced and consider the future shape of practice-based IPE.

11.00 Coffee

11.15 Short communications from around the region

11.15 An Interprofessional (IP) Learning Week

Clair Zawada, Senior Lecturer in Radiotherapy, Birmingham City University

Interprofessional Learning Week is a Faculty wide conference that offers a wide range of interactive activities for both staff and students to encourage team working, wider thinking and awareness of other professions. Here Clair describes experience so far, lessons learned and future developments

11.35 IP workshops for pre-registration, nursing, physiotherapy, dentistry and pharmacy: what is the optimum professional mix?

Christine Hirsch, Senior Lecturer and Director of Clinical Learning MPharm programme, University of Birmingham

In this presentation, Christine will consider experience and lessons learned from these successful 'bi-professional' workshops and consider the advantages and disadvantages of expanding the number of professions involved.

- 11.55 A model for Interprofessional Education at the University of Birmingham
Sharon Buckley, Senior Lecturer and Lead for Interprofessional Education,
University of Birmingham
In this presentation, Sharon will outline a model for IPE at Birmingham that takes account of the institutional context, is flexible and scalable and ensures that all students have an equivalent IPE experience.
- 12.15 Promoting integrated working across the health and care sectors: recommendations for practice settings, professional and statutory bodies, HEIs & HEE
Pat Bluteau and Ann Jackson, Faculty of Health and Life Sciences, Coventry University
An update on the current Health Education England funded project to investigate the best ways to educate for and promote integrated working across the health care sectors.
- 12.35 Lunch
- 13.15 CAIPE Update
Richard Pitt, Chair of CAIPE
- 13.45 Short communications continued...
- 13.45 The Knowledge and Skills Exchange \(KASE\) Student IPE Society
Kalyaani Vickneswaran, year 5 Medical Student, University of Birmingham
KASE is a growing and vibrant student IPE Society based at the University of Birmingham. Here, Kalyaani, who recently attended ATBHIX with the support of a CAIPE student scholarship, shares the work of KASE and reflect on her experience of presenting KASE at this major international conference.
- 14.30 Safeside: an immersive community nursing simulation
Stephanie Reynolds, Senior Teaching Fellow in Nursing and Midwifery, Birmingham City University
Safeside is a community simulation in a life size street owned by the Fire Service and working with the BCU School of Acting. Scenarios place nursing students in challenging situations that encourage them to consider their roles and accountability as community nurses. This presentation will consider the potential for Safeside to foster IPE.
- 15.00 Coffee
- 15.15 CAIPE Think Tank
A panel discussion of 'priorities for West Midlands IPE' facilitated by Gerri Nevin and Sharon Buckley
- 16.00 Closing remarks
Richard Pitt and Sundari Joseph

Maps and directions: <https://bcu.ac.uk/about-us/maps-and-campuses/city-south-campus/map-and-directions>

BIRMINGHAM CITY
University

Centre for the Advancement of Interprofessional Education

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

COLLEGE OF MEDICAL AND
DENTAL SCIENCES