The John Horder Awards for 2024

These annual awards were established in memory of Dr John Horder by the General Practice and Primary Health Care Section of the Royal Society of Medicine and the Centre for the Advancement of Interprofessional Education (CAIPE).

There are two Awards:

Practitioner Team Award of £600 and Certificate of Achievement to a nominated team working within health and social care who can demonstrate outstanding principles of interprofessional learning and collaborative practice.

Student Team Award of £600 and Certificate of Achievement open to students (pre and post qualified) from all health and social care professions. Awarded to the student team submitting the best essay describing and discussing their experience of learning in health and social care, demonstrating principles of interprofessional learning and collaborative practice.

The closing date for applications is Wednesday 31st July 2024.

The awards for 2024 will be presented at the Royal Society of Medicine, 1 Wimpole Street in London on Thursday 26th of September 2024.

Winners are required to attend to present their winning entry and receive the award.
